FAVOR SPAVINAW FOR MUNY PARK

Vital Need of Recreation Center Could Be Met at Water Site.

MOVEMENT WIDELY FAVERED

Tulsa-Ozark Club Fosters Movement to Build Great Playground.

ACTIVE CAMPAIGN STARTS

Those With City's Best Interests at Heart Should Aid Drive.

Tulsa needs a playground. No one can attain an ideal development without a good recreation spot, and there are more than 75,000 population in Tulsa that has not even a suitable amusement park.

Wherever the Tulsa booster began preaching the gospel of the Wonder City he was met with two objections. "The water is so bad and there is no place to go." The men have found a solution for the water difficulty by locating in Spavinaw river and movement is now being backed by a number of prominent city leaders to meet the other objection by going to Spavinaw for a municipal recreation area.

An Ideal Outing Place

The initial steps in the movement to secure land for a municipal playground in the beautiful hills near the proposed dam site and adjoining the lake that is to be created by the dam were taken yesterday by the members of the Tulsa-Ozark club who long ago saw in Spavinaw an ideal camping and outing place and located their club house six miles above the dam site. In a statement over the signatures of Frank Gray, president, M. C. Hale, treasurer and J. C. Smith, secretary of the club, the purpose of the movement was set forth as being to secure the land in order that the club might not suffice for the needs of Tulsa as a beautiful summer resort. The members of the club desire to head the movement and promise to give liberally to a fund to provide a recreation center for the entire city on this natural beauty spot.

Leaders of the movement are getting as many people as will to visit the Spavinaw country and see for themselves the great advantages that the wonderful region has as a playground. A party of 22 Tulsans started out to the dam site Sunday and were very enthusiastic over the possibilities of the location. The lake that will be created by the dam will add greatly to the scenic beauty of the region and all who have visited the stream express the belief that it will dominate Lake Worth, the first and greatest playground of the entire city on this natural beauty spot.

With the work going ahead rapidly the smooth gravelled road will soon be completed. At present these remains but three and a half miles of the drive that is enough to impede travel. When the road is complete the trip can be made by automobile in about half hours. When the dam is completed the roads will be reality. It will undoubtedly be connected with the city by interurban.

In addition to a great municipal recreation ground with bathing and boating facilities, a splendid fishing and hunting resort, and an ideal summer outing place, the movement also contemplates a free club house for all young girls under the supervision of the Girl Scouts. Ladies' fraternal organizations, the W. M. F. and similar institutions are also expected to erect houses near the lake. Those who wish to build private cottages on the camping grounds will be enabled to secure the rights. It is the plan of those making the proposition to make it a recreation spot for the entire city.

A. E. F. ROUGHNECKS ARRIVE HERE SUNDAY

NEW YORK, July 13.—Four transports arrived here today from Europe with 1,000 men of the Cap Finisterre bringing 2,250, the cruiser Puerto Rico, the cruiser St. Louis and the battleship New Mexico. Troops aboard the Cap Finisterre included most of the late service men, including many men from Virginia, Texas, Alabama and New York, and the complement of sailors and officers of the battleship were brought along.

Officers of the port authorities at 1,000 were served by Army officers, 1,000 of whom arrived in the ships. They declared the transports had been crowded.

The Cap Finisterre, according to officials, was carrying 2,250 first class passengers, but they were reported to be more than 1,800, including 200 women, welfare workers and war brides.

Most of the war brides were wives of American soldiers serving with the 23rd Infantry Division and of Archangel Ninety-ninth Division.

More than 1,000 men on the Finisterre were members of provisional battalions and the remaining returning to America were the soldiers classified as "other ranks," which included every man not retained for military regulation.

THE LESSON.

New let the lesson be learned:

That the tyrant has taught,

Power is a joy to be earned,

Not a joy to be given.

He that would rule or would lead,

Must triumph by right.

Broken forever the sword,

Which glorifies might.

GONE ON THE GERMAN DESPAIR.

Look at the wrecks of their dreams!

None are their swords fair,

Faithful, though very gleams!

God help us! this is our doom!

The error of might as a creed!

Here was force, cruel and stout!

Who, more than you do you need?

This was the land of the Huns,

Bold and fashioned for battle;

Taught was each dutiful son,

That the whole of the tyrant was just.

Never was mention of right,

Never was mention of wrong,

There was a worship of might,

Might and the monarch who rules.

Bright were the swords of their greed,

Drawn, the suns of their hate;

Never an unworthy crew,

Held weapons as cruel and great,

Never so strong as strong,

Were right and its honor assailed;

Might was passed there for a wrong,

Never so weak as weak,

Told.

New let the lesson be learned,

Teach it, learn it, never forget,

Power is a joy to be earned,

Not a joy to be given.

He that would rule or would lead,

Must triumph by right.

Broken forever the sword,

Which glorifies might.

STUDY OF TREATY IN SENATE TODAY

Foreign Relations Committee Holds Conference on It This Morning.

PROHIBITION LEGISLATION

Debate on Dry Enforcement Bill Is Scheduled to Continue in Lower Branch.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—Consideration by the senate of the peace treaty with its league of nations covenant, actually to open tomorrow with the meeting of the foreign relations committee, transcends in interest anything expected to come before congress this week.

Both branches of congress, however, have a busy legislative week ahead with debate on prohibition enforcement legislation, expected to continue in the house, and on the appropriations of the agricultural and sundry civil appropriation bills, vetoed by the president, to be decided. A number of committees, both those engaged in drafting legislation and those conducting investigations, will hold meetings.

The senate foreign relations committee, to which the peace treaty was sent Thursday, will hold a special meeting tomorrow to decide on the course to be followed in considering the document. Although both opponents and advocates of the peace treaty expect their own conference today, there was no indication that any plan of action had been definitely agreed on.

Plan Week of Study.

The immediate program for consideration of the treaty, republican leaders said tonight, will be a careful study by the foreign relations committee. In this connection it is planned to set up several resolutions calling upon the state department for papers needed by the committee in its examination of the treaty. Then comes the adoption of a chairman's bill, requesting a copy of the alleged secret treaty between Japan and Germany, of Senator Borah of Idaho, republican, requesting a copy of an alleged memorandum by Secretary Lansing, Colonial House, and General Bliss protesting against the Shantung agreement, and of Senator LaFollette, republican, of Wisconsin, calling for papers concerning the actions of the Chinese in peace negotiations.

Not for some time, probably two weeks according to the republican leaders, is it planned to launch the reservations of the treaty which are in process of drafting. Much of this week will be required to study and discuss the treaty.

HYMNS WITH JAZZ MELODY

New "Vehicle" Makes "Hit" With "Packed House" of "First Nighters" and "Gallery Gods."

Religion by theatrical methods attempted last night for the first time in Tulsa by Rev. Harold G. Cooke of the Tiger Memorial church, 501 North Main street, made a decided hit with the churchgoers.

Playing to a packed house, "Sky Pilot" Cooke and his troupe of angels put over something entirely original in the line of religious services. By applying the principle that people like to be entertained as well as preached to, and copying the methods used by the vaudeville and movie houses to fill their seats, the progressive minister advertised an entertaining program and an auditorium filled with fire and song.

Not for some time, probably two weeks according to the republican leaders, is it planned to launch the reservations of the treaty which are in process of drafting. Much of this week will be required to study and discuss the treaty.

York, Great Hero of War, Believes Prayer Saved Him

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, July 13.—Bergen Alvin C. York, this country's great war hero, and Lieutenant Commander A. C. Herd of the N.C.A., were the subjects of a series of lectures at the Methodist central army exposition.

Separate receptions were arranged for the heroes in the coliseum which was crowded to the doors.

Bergen York, in a brief response to his introduction, said

with frankness:

"I am just a plain mountaineer boy from Tennessee. All I have to say about the war in France is in honor of God, without His help we would not have won."

Sergeant York is deeply religious and this fact was brought out in the few words he spoke to the assembled thousands today.

He believed in a full salvation and led the cheering.

The president of the state government of Ireland, Mr. de Valera, terms his administration, spoke from a state which had been created in the center of the park.

The crowd was enthusiastic but some of the spectators hissed when the names of President Wilson, Prime Minister Lloyd George of Great Britain and Sir Edward Carson, Irish unionist leader, were mentioned.

Persons on the speakers platform, however, soon stopped those demonstrations.

Mr. de Valera, as in his full address, expressed confidence that Americans would support him in his efforts to maintain the independence of Ireland.

Colonel Willard, who was present, said he had been assured by the British government that the United States would not interfere in the internal affairs of Ireland.
